STATE FAIR PRESIDENT M'DONALD SOLVES THE WHITEWASH PROBLEM

"Turning on the Lime Valve, or Whitewash Problems I Have Solved," and go out to the state fair grounds. Is likely to be the title of the next volume from the prolific pen of J. G. Mc-bonald, the gifted author who has in-by some of the other prisoners. An investigation was made, but none of the prisoners knew anything about it. For nearly a week Tobin has been in Sait Lake City and when he first arrived had some money. He drank heavily. He was arrested late Tuesday night for drunkenness. He grabbed a hat off the bar in Branning's saloon. 19 East Second South street, and tried to get away with it. Police Officer Smoot overtook him after a hard chase and landed him in jail. He was released the day following. He was found Thursday morning in a drunken condition in the rear of the new Herald building by Police Officer Heath and taken to jail. The charge of drunkenness was preferred against him. He was sentenced to five days in jail the same afternoon.

Jaller Parry found Tobin moaning in his cell shortly before 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, He tried to arouse the man, but failed. It was apparent at once that the man was drugsed and Dr. Wilcox was called. Tobin was taken into the comergency hospital where every attention was given him. Police Officers Smoot and Carlson worked over him for almost three hours, but he died without rallying.

Straightway a messenger was dispatched to the lair of the machine with instructions to secure it at any cost. He arrived on the ground only to find that the apparatus had been shipped to Ogden, at thriving city located at the end of the Rio Grande railway not far from Huntsville. To Ogden went the machine and brought it, along with the men who operate it, to Salt Lake. A few days ago they were sent out to the fair grounds.

But one additional Chicago Typothetae. But one additional strike was called today because of a refusal to sign the eight-hour day agreement, and this was in an independent establishment employing only two men. Committees representing the union continued their visits to the independent houses today, and tonight it was reported that over 100 of these concerns, employing 1,200 men, had signed the agreement submitted to them demanding an eight-hour day after Jan. 1, 1906, and a closed shop. Among today's signers, it was said by officials of the union, were several of the firms whose members attended the meeting called by the Typothetae yesterday and who had pledged themselves to oppose the demands of the union. There are still 200 independent
